

WHITLAND
ENGINEERING

Case Study - Utilities

Whitland Engineering completes major replacement works to the existing Pen y Cefn Clean Water Treatment Works in order to triple its capacity in providing potable water to the Dolgellau area of North Wales from 30,000 litres to 90,000 litres per day.

Whitland Engineering acted as main mechanical contractor to Black & Veatch who were Principal Contractor working for Dwr Cymru Welsh Water.

WHITLAND
ENGINEERING

Case Study Utilities

The project consisted of the following elements-

- ▶ Design, fabrication and installation of access walkways.
- ▶ Design and installation of pump sets and pipework.
- ▶ Installation of process plant

